Please read the poem 'The Vulture' By Hilaire Belloc. Read it a second time and use a coloured pen to highlight the pairs of rhyming words or write these down on a piece of paper. I will put a recording on Tapestry of me reading this!

The Vulture

The vulture eats between his meals
And that's the reason why,
He very, very rarely feels
As well as you or I.

His eye is dull, his head is bald,
His neck is growing thinner.
Oh! What a lesson for us all
To only eat at dinner.

Hilaire Belloc

Do you have all of the rhyming pairs listed below? Read the other words in the box below the table. Copy each into the correct rhyme section. Remember rhyming words have the same end sounds, they aren't always spelled the same! (I'm not sure about
