

"Gold is always hidden. We need a map with a cross where the gold is," said Crocodile.

"That's easy," said Anna. "Draw a map of the whole world, to be sure."

"It doesn't have a cross," said Crocodile when the map was finished.

Anna drew one on.

"The gold is in France!" said Anna. "How do we get to France?"

"Hm," said Crocodile. "I don't know that bit."

Look at Anna and Crocodile's map of the world. How have they made it? What have they included? If you were going to draw a map of the whole world, what would you include? What countries, special places or features do you know that you would include? Is the whole world just land? What is on the land? Around the land? Use any materials you have to hand in your home to create your own imaginary world map.
