WORLD BOOK DAY!

World Book Day Update

Just a reminder that we will be taking part in World Book Day celebrations on Thursday 3rd March. This year marks 25 years of World Book Day . Children will be able to come to school on this day dressed as their favourite book character, book or even favourite author - Please try to help your child to choose a character from an actual book, rather than a character from a TV programme/Film that has been made into a book!

Parent Readers:

Calling all parent storytellers and reading enthusiasts! We would love to invite you to share a story with your child's class as part of World Book Day. The children love to hear different stories read aloud and this is a perfect opportunity to celebrate books from both home and school. If you would like to share one of your favourite stories with your child's class, please sign up with Lisa in the office by the end of the day on Wednesday 2nd March. This is a perfect opportunity to celebrate the diversity within our school so please feel free to read a story in your home language too!

Book Swap:

On world book day we will be holding a book swap where children will be able to bring in a book from home that they have finished reading, and no longer want. They can then swap this with their peers and take home a new book to read! If your child would like to take part, please make sure that they understand that once they have swapped their book that they won't be able to get this back again!

New Uniform

As you know we are moving towards a new exciting school uniform which will reflect our new logo.

I realise that because of this you may have been holding off buying new uniform items, however, we still have half of the academic year left and there will be a transition period once the new uniform is launched where children will still be able to wear items of the current style.

The Shoe Station still has lots of stock of the current uniform to sell.

Sally has decided to offer 20% off on all current items. She will be at school on Wednesday 2nd March and Thursday 3rd March with lots of stock for you to buy at these bargain prices!

Bookbags £9.50 - sale price £5

Cardigans & Sweatshirts £15 - sale price £12

PE t-shirt £8 - sale price £6

Polo shirt £8.50 - sale price £6

This 20% offer will also be available in the shop but not for online purchases. Sally will be able to accept card or cash on these school sale days.

Many thanks for your support

Welcome to Kew Riverside!

A warm welcome to Kew Riverside to Hadi in Monkey class and his family

Netball Tournament

Our inaugural netball team took part in the Borough Netball Tournament where there were 38 local primary schools taking part. They battled hard and improved with every match, playing every position as expected in High 5 netball. Thank you so much to parents for supporting with travel arrangements. We had a great day!

Marie

Juniper Hall

Juniper hall letters have gone out today to Crocodile class for September, please complete and return.
